Everything works by machinery even to the sponging out and rinsing of the bottles, of which they use a large number. When filled, they are put in the ice house which is brought down to a fre-zing temperature through the agency of two-inch pipes, that communicate with the compartment in which the ice is

A Worthy Enterprise. The enterprising real estate firm of Bowman & Ingram proposes within a short time to begin the publication of a paper devoted exclusively to the development of the city and county of Sumter. They have furnished the following information in regard to it: The paper will be called The Suciter Trade Jourgal and as its name denotes, will deal solely with the business and trade of this city and the surrounding country. The sworn circula-tion is to be not less than 2000 copies a month. No subscription will be charged, but issue will appear on or about the 15th prox.
